

LEARNING THE LESSONS

IOPC Independent
Office for Police Conduct

Improving policing policy and practice

ISSUE 43

MENTAL HEALTH

- Eight IOPC case studies highlight learning from mental health incidents
- The NPCC lead for Right Care, Right Person shares key aims
- The National Police Wellbeing Service introduce their work
- Police forces and charities share insights into their local partnerships
- Approved Mental Health Professionals answer our questions
- The College of Policing and NPCC reflect on the mental health strategy
- Rethink Mental Illness call for changes to safely meet mental health needs

Download a copy and find out more from www.policeconduct.gov.uk/our-work/learning/learning-the-lessons

